Item 4: Advisory Business

Firm Description

Team Financial Group, LLC dba Team Wealth & Tax Advisors (“TFG”) was founded in 2013. It will become a Registered Investment Advisor (RIA) once approved in 2020. Prior to approval as an RIA, TFG was the entity established in anticipation of this registration. In addition, in 2019 insurance services were offered through TFG. TFG offers financial planning and wealth management solutions to its clients and actively works with them in monitoring their plans. Jeffrey S. Cole and Leonard P. Cole are Co-Owners.

Under CCR Section 260.238(k), TFG, its representatives or any of its employees will disclose to Clients all material conflicts of interest when engaging in a client relationship.

Types of Advisory Services

ASSET MANAGEMENT

TFG offers discretionary asset management services to advisory Clients. TFG will offer Clients ongoing asset management services through determining individual investment goals, time horizons, objectives, and risk tolerance. Investment strategies, investment selection, asset allocation, portfolio monitoring and the overall investment program will be based on the above factors. The Client will authorize TFG discretionary authority to execute selected investment program transactions as stated within the Investment Advisory Agreement.

FINANCIAL PLANNING AND CONSULTING

Financial planning services include a comprehensive evaluation of an investor's current and future financial state will be provided by using currently known variables to predict future cash flows, asset values and withdrawal plans. TFG will use current net worth, tax liabilities, asset allocation, and future retirement and estate plans in developing financial plans while incorporating the framework and underlying philosophy of our Trademarked process called “The Principled Wealth Strategy®”.

The Seven Core Principals of “The Principled Wealth Strategy®” may include but are not limited to:

1. Retirement and Income Planning:

We'll conduct a detailed retirement analysis to see if you are on track for a successful retirement. We'll look at your essentials like health care, housing and food, and build a buffer for expenses like travel and hobbies. We'll look at how much you have, what you have saved for retirement, and how much predictable income you'll get from Social Security, pensions, investments, and annuities. We will stress test your plan and suggest any changes which will give you the best chance at meeting your goals. Some of the areas we cover are:

- Social Security optimization
- Income and expense analysis
- Inflation planning
- Surviving spousal planning
- Will my money last?
- When can I retire?

2. Investment Planning

The key to successful long-term investing starts with a conversation on risk and what risks you're comfortable taking. Once we know your goals, we then build a customized asset allocation strategy based on your specific investment objectives and risk profile. This investment plan set our guidelines for selecting, buying, monitoring, selling, and rebalancing your investments and establishing benchmarks for performance reviews. Topics we will discuss with you include but are not limited to:

- Your personal risk number
- What is volatility?
- Stress testing your investment portfolio
- The difference between Equities and Bonds
- Why it's important to have non-correlated assets in your portfolio
- Why it's important to have a custom asset allocation strategy plan

3. Tax Planning

Any comprehensive Retirement Plan will include a strategy for minimizing tax liabilities on personal income to the extent permissible by the tax code. The strategy should include identification of tax-favored investment vehicles that can reduce taxation of investment income.

- Assessing the taxable nature of your current holdings
- Developing tax-deferred and tax-free strategies
- Identifying tax-reduction opportunities for retirement fund distributions
- Developing beneficiary tax-savings strategies
- Identifying tax-loss harvesting strategies

4. Cash Flow & Debt Management

We will evaluate your current and future sources of income, and help you become more efficient with your monthly budgets and set aside cash for emergencies. An income and spending plan determines how much can be set aside for debt repayment, savings and investing each month.

- Balancing cash inflows with outflows
- Developing plans to eliminate debt

5. Family Risk Management

A key part of keeping your wealth is to protect your assets by the proper use of insurance. Our comprehensive risk management plan includes a full review of life and disability insurance, personal liability coverage, property and casualty coverage, and catastrophic coverage.

- Determining life insurance needs
- Assessing adequacy of homeowner's and auto insurance coverage
- Long-term and disability needs

6. Major Event Planning

By careful planning, we can make sure you're well equipped to take care of life's expected and unexpected financial issues that arise. Our long-term investment plan will include a customized asset allocation strategy based on specific investment objectives and a risk profile.

- Planning for future health care costs
- Contingency planning for major unexpected expenses
- College costs for children
- Future wants

7. Legacy Planning

A well-crafted estate plan ensures that what you want to happen will happen – even after you're gone. We can help you avoid the tragic (yet surprisingly common) mistake of putting off estate planning until it's too late. We will help update your retirement accounts, review beneficiaries for retirement accounts and life insurance and take a look at your current estate planning documents and prompt you to work with your estate plan provider if you have a major life event such as a marriage, death, birth, etc.

- Identifying estate and income tax planning opportunities
- Identifying tax-savings opportunities for your beneficiaries
- Providing for your beneficiaries
- Coordination of estate planning documents such as a will or living trust

If a conflict of interest exists between the interests of TFG and the interests of the Client, the Client is under no obligation to act upon TFG's recommendation. If the Client elects to act on any of the recommendations, the Client is under no obligation to affect the transaction through TFG. Financial plans will be completed and delivered inside of ninety (90) days contingent upon timely delivery of all required documentation.

SEMINARS AND WORKSHOPS

TFG holds seminars and workshops to educate the public on different types of investments and the different services they offer. The seminars are educational in nature and no specific investment or tax advice is given.

Client Tailored Services and Client Imposed Restrictions

The goals and objectives for each Client are documented in our Client files. Investment strategies are created that reflect the stated goals and objectives. Clients may impose restrictions on investing in certain securities or types of securities. Agreements may not be assigned without written Client consent.

Wrap Fee Programs

TFG does not sponsor any wrap fee programs.

Client Assets under Management

As of November 29, 2021, TFG has $81,804,912 in discretionary assets under management and $0 in non-discretionary assets under management.

Item 5: Fees and Compensation

Method of Compensation and Fee Schedule

ASSET MANAGEMENT

TFG offers discretionary direct asset management services to advisory Clients. Pursuant to CCR Section 260.238(j), lower fees for comparable services may be available from other sources. Total fees to Client will never exceed the safe harbor threshold of 3% of assets under management per year. TFG charges an annual investment advisory fee based on the total assets under management as follows:

Assets Under Management	Maximum Annual Fee	Monthly Fee
Up to $250,000	1.65%	.1375%
$250,000 to $500,000	1.45%	.1208%
Over $500,000	1.35%	.1125%

This is a tiered or breakpoint fee schedule, the entire portfolio is charged the same asset management fee. For example, a Client with $750,000 under management would pay $10,125 on an annual basis. $$750,000 \times 1.35\% = $10,125$.

The annual fee is negotiable based upon certain criteria (e.g., historical relationship, type of assets, anticipated future earning capacity, anticipated future additional assets, dollar amounts of assets to be managed, related accounts, account composition, negotiations with Clients, etc.).

Fees are billed monthly in arrears based on the amount of assets managed as of the close of business on the last business day of the previous month. Lower fees for comparable services may be available from other sources. Clients may terminate their account within five (5) business days of signing the Investment Advisory Agreement with no obligation and without penalty. After 5 business days, the Client may cancel by providing written notice to TFG and TFG may terminate advisory services with thirty (30) days written notice to the Client. For accounts opened or closed mid-billing period, fees will be prorated based on the days services are provided during the given period. All unpaid earned fees will be due to TFG. Client shall be given thirty (30) days prior written notice of any increase in fees. Any increase in fees will be acknowledged in writing by both parties before any increase in said fees occurs.

FINANCIAL PLANNING AND CONSULTING

TFG charges a fixed fee for financial planning. Prior to the planning process the Client will be provided an estimated plan fee. Services are completed and delivered inside of ninety (90) days contingent upon timely delivery of all required documentation. Client may cancel within five (5) business days of signing Agreement with no obligation and without penalty. If the Client cancels after five (5) business days, any unearned fees will be refunded to the Client, or any unpaid earned fees will be due to TFG.

Financial Planning Services are offered based on a flat fee between $500 and $2,500. Fees for financial plans are due upon delivery of the completed plan.

SEMINARS AND WORKSHOPS

TFG holds seminars and workshops to educate the public on different types of investments and the different services they offer. The seminars are educational in nature and no specific investment or tax advice is given. TFG does not charge a fee for attendance to these seminars.

Client Payment of Fees

Fees for asset management services are deducted from a designated Client account to facilitate billing. The Client must consent in advance to direct debiting of their investment account.

Fees for financial plans will be billed to the Client and paid directly to TFG.

Additional Client Fees Charged

Custodians may charge transaction fees on purchases or sales of certain mutual funds, equities, and exchange-traded funds. These charges may include mutual fund transaction fees, postage and handling and miscellaneous fees.

For more details on the brokerage practices, see Item 12 of this brochure.

Prepayment of Client Fees

TFG does not require any prepayment of fees.

External Compensation for the Sale of Securities to Clients

Investment Advisor Representatives of TFG receive external compensation from sales of investment related products such as insurance as licensed insurance agents, or as tax preparers. From time to time, they will offer clients services from those activities. Approximately 40% of their time and compensations is from this activity.

This represents a conflict of interest because it gives an incentive to recommend products based on the commission or fee received. As insurance agents, they do not charge advisory fees on the insurance products they receive a commission on. This conflict is mitigated by disclosures, procedures, and the firm's fiduciary obligation to place the best interest of the Client first and Clients are not required to purchase any products or services. Clients have the option to purchase these products through another insurance agent or tax preparer of their choosing.

Item 6: Performance-Based Fees and Side-by-Side Management

Sharing of Capital Gains

Fees are not based on a share of the capital gains or capital appreciation of managed securities.

TFG does not use a performance-based fee structure because of the conflict of interest. Performance based compensation may create an incentive for TFG to recommend an investment that may carry a higher degree of risk to the Client.

Item 7: Types of Clients

Description

TFG generally provides investment advice to individuals, high net worth individuals, trusts, corporations or business entities. Client relationships vary in scope and length of service.

Account Minimums

TFG requires a minimum of $100,000 to open an account. In certain instances, the minimum account size may be lowered or waived.

Item 8: Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

Methods of Analysis

Security analysis methods may include fundamental analysis, technical analysis, charting, and cyclical analysis. Investing in securities involves risk of loss that Clients should be prepared to bear. Past performance is not a guarantee of future returns.

Fundamental analysis concentrates on factors that determine a company's value and expected future earnings. This strategy would normally encourage equity purchases in stocks that are undervalued or priced below their perceived value. The risk assumed is that the market will fail to reach expectations of perceived value.

Technical analysis attempts to predict a future stock price or direction based on market trends. The assumption is that the market follows discernible patterns and if these patterns can be identified then a prediction can be made. The risk is that markets do not always follow patterns and relying solely on this method may not take into account new patterns that emerge over time.

Charting analysis strategy involves using and comparing various charts to predict long and short-term performance or market trends. The risk involved in using this method is that only past performance data is considered without using other methods to crosscheck data. Using charting analysis without other methods of analysis would be making the assumption that past performance will be indicative of future performance. This may not be the case.

Cyclical analysis assumes that the markets react in cyclical patterns which, once identified, can be leveraged to provide performance. The risks with this strategy are twofold: 1) the markets do not always repeat cyclical patterns; and 2) if too many investors begin to implement this strategy, then it changes the very cycles these investors are trying to exploit.

In developing a financial plan for a Client, TFG's analysis may include cash flow analysis, investment planning, risk management, and tax planning. Based on the information gathered, a detailed strategy is tailored to the Client's specific situation.

The main sources of information include financial newspapers and magazines, annual reports, prospectuses, and filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Investment Strategy

The investment strategy for a specific Client is based upon the objectives stated by the Client during consultations. The Client may change these objectives at any time by providing written notice to TFG. Each Client executes a Client profile form or similar form that documents their objectives and their desired investment strategy.

Other strategies may include long-term purchases and short-term purchases.

Security Specific Material Risks

All investment programs have certain risks that are borne by the investor. Investing in securities involves risk of loss that clients should be prepared to bear.

Our investment approach constantly keeps the risk of loss in mind. Investors face the following investment risks and should discuss these risks with TFG:

- Market Risk: The prices of securities in which Clients invest may decline in response to certain events taking place around the world, including those directly involving the companies whose securities are owned by a fund; conditions affecting the general economy; overall market changes; local, regional or global political, social or economic instability; and currency, interest rate and commodity price fluctuations. Investors should have a long-term perspective and be able to tolerate potentially sharp declines in market value.
- Interest-rate Risk: Fluctuations in interest rates may cause investment prices to fluctuate. For example, when interest rates rise, yields on existing bonds become less attractive, causing their market values to decline.
- Inflation Risk: When any type of inflation is present, a dollar today will buy more than a dollar next year, because purchasing power is eroding at the rate of inflation.

- Currency Risk: Overseas investments are subject to fluctuations in the value of the dollar against the currency of the investment's originating country. This is also referred to as exchange rate risk.
- Reinvestment Risk: This is the risk that future proceeds from investments may have to be reinvested at a potentially lower rate of return (i.e. interest rate). This primarily relates to fixed income securities.
- Liquidity Risk: Liquidity is the ability to readily convert an investment into cash. Generally, assets are more liquid if many traders are interested in a standardized product. For example, Treasury Bills are highly liquid, while real estate properties are not.
- Management Risk: The advisor's investment approach may fail to produce the intended results. If the advisor's assumptions regarding the performance of a specific asset class or fund are not realized in the expected time frame, the overall performance of the Client's portfolio may suffer.
- Equity Risk: Equity securities tend to be more volatile than other investment choices. The value of an individual mutual fund or ETF can be more volatile than the market as a whole. This volatility affects the value of the Client's overall portfolio. Small and mid-cap companies are subject to additional risks. Smaller companies may experience greater volatility, higher failure rates, more limited markets, product lines, financial resources, and less management experience than larger companies. Smaller companies may also have a lower trading volume, which may disproportionately affect their market price, tending to make them fall more in response to selling pressure than is the case with larger companies.
- Fixed Income Risk: The issuer of a fixed income security may not be able to make interest and principal payments when due. Generally, the lower the credit rating of a security, the greater the risk that the issuer will default on its obligation. If a rating agency gives a debt security a lower rating, the value of the debt security will decline because investors will demand a higher rate of return. As nominal interest rates rise, the value of fixed income securities held by a fund is likely to decrease. A nominal interest rate is the sum of a real interest rate and an expected inflation rate.
- Investment Companies Risk: When a Client invests in open end mutual funds or ETFs, the Client indirectly bears their proportionate share of any fees and expenses payable directly by those funds. Therefore, the Client will incur higher expenses, which may be duplicative. In addition, the Client's overall portfolio may be affected by losses of an underlying fund and the level of risk arising from the investment practices of an underlying fund (such as the use of derivatives). ETFs are also subject to the following risks: (i) an ETF's shares may trade at a market price that is above or below their net asset value or (ii) trading of an ETF's shares may be halted if the listing exchange's officials deem such action appropriate, the shares are delisted from the exchange, or the activation of market-wide "circuit breakers" (which are tied to large decreases in stock prices) halts stock trading generally. Adviser has no control over the risks taken by the underlying funds in which Client invests.
- Long-term purchases: Long-term investments are those vehicles purchased with the intension of being held for more than one year. Typically the expectation of the investment is to increase in value so that it can eventually be sold for a profit. In addition, there may be an expectation for the investment to provide income. One of the biggest risks associated with long-term investments is volatility, the fluctuations in the financial markets that can cause investments to lose value.

- Short-term purchases: Short-term investments are typically held for one year or less. Generally there is not a high expectation for a return or an increase in value. Typically, short-term investments are purchased for the relatively greater degree of principal protection they are designed to provide. Short-term investment vehicles may be subject to purchasing power risk — the risk that your investment’s return will not keep up with inflation.
- Trading risk: Investing involves risk, including possible loss of principal. There is no assurance that the investment objective of any fund or investment will be achieved.
- Leveraged Risk: The risks involved with using leverage may include compounding of returns (this works both ways – positive and negative), possible reset periods, volatility, use of derivatives, active trading and high expenses.

Item 9: Disciplinary Information

Criminal or Civil Actions

TFG and its management have not been involved in any criminal or civil action.

Administrative Enforcement Proceedings

TFG and its management have not been involved in administrative enforcement proceedings.

Self-Regulatory Organization Enforcement Proceedings

TFG and its management have not been involved in legal or disciplinary events that are material to a Client’s or prospective Client’s evaluation of TFG or the integrity of its management.

Item 10: Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

Broker-Dealer or Representative Registration

TFG is not registered as a broker-dealer and no affiliated representatives of TFG are registered representatives of a broker-dealer.

Futures or Commodity Registration

Neither TFG nor its affiliated representatives are registered or have an application pending to register as a futures commission merchant, commodity pool operator, or a commodity trading advisor.

Material Relationships Maintained by this Advisory Business and Conflicts of Interest

Investment Advisor Representatives of TFG receive external compensation from sales of investment related products such as insurance as licensed insurance agents, or as tax preparers. From time to time, they will offer clients services from those activities. Approximately 40% of their time and compensations is from this activity.

This represents a conflict of interest because it gives an incentive to recommend products based on the commission or fee received. As insurance agents, they do not charge advisory fees on the insurance products they receive a commission on. This conflict is mitigated by disclosures, procedures, and the firm's fiduciary obligation to place the best interest of the Client first and Clients are not required to purchase any products or services. Clients have the option to purchase these products through another insurance agent or tax preparer of their choosing.

Mr. Leonard P Cole is also Certified Public Accountant. However, he does not have signatory authority over any client accounts.

Recommendations or Selections of Other Investment Advisors and Conflicts of Interest

TFG does not select or recommend other investment advisors.

Item 11: Code of Ethics, Participation or Interest in Client Transactions and Personal Trading

Code of Ethics Description

The affiliated persons (affiliated persons include employees and/or independent contractors) of TFG have committed to a Code of Ethics ("Code"). The purpose of our Code is to set forth standards of conduct expected of TFG affiliated persons and addresses conflicts that may arise. The Code defines acceptable behavior for affiliated persons of TFG. The Code reflects TFG and its supervised persons' responsibility to act in the best interest of their Client.

One area which the Code addresses is when affiliated persons buy or sell securities for their personal accounts and how to mitigate any conflict of interest with our Clients. We do not allow any affiliated persons to use non-public material information for their personal profit or to use internal research for their personal benefit in conflict with the benefit to our Clients.

TFG's policy prohibits any person from acting upon or otherwise misusing non-public or inside information. No advisory representative or other employee, officer or director of TFG may recommend any transaction in a security or its derivative to advisory Clients or engage in personal securities transactions for a security or its derivatives if the advisory representative possesses material, non-public information regarding the security.

TFG's Code is based on the guiding principle that the interests of the Client are our top priority. TFG's officers, directors, advisors, and other affiliated persons have a fiduciary duty to our Clients and must diligently perform that duty to maintain the complete trust and confidence of our Clients. When a conflict arises, it is our obligation to put the Client's interests over the interests of either affiliated persons or the company.

The Code applies to "access" persons. "Access" persons are affiliated persons who have access to non-public information regarding any Clients' purchase or sale of securities, or non-public information regarding the portfolio holdings of any reportable fund, who are involved in making securities recommendations to Clients, or who have access to such recommendations that are non-public.

TFG will provide a copy of the Code of Ethics to any Client or prospective Client upon request.

Investment Recommendations Involving a Material Financial Interest and Conflict of Interest

TFG and its affiliated persons do not recommend to Clients securities in which we have a material financial interest.

Advisory Firm Purchase of Same Securities Recommended to Clients and Conflicts of Interest

TFG and its affiliated persons may buy or sell securities that are also held by Clients. In order to mitigate conflicts of interest such as trading ahead of Client transactions, affiliated persons are required to disclose all reportable securities transactions as well as provide TFG with copies of their brokerage statements.

The Chief Compliance Officer of TFG is Leonard P Cole. He reviews all trades of the affiliated persons each quarter. The personal trading reviews ensure that the personal trading of affiliated persons does not affect the markets and that Clients of the firm receive preferential treatment over associated persons' transactions.

Client Securities Recommendations or Trades and Concurrent Advisory Firm Securities Transactions and Conflicts of Interest

TFG does not maintain a firm proprietary trading account and does not have a material financial interest in any securities being recommended and therefore no conflicts of interest exist. However, affiliated persons may buy or sell securities at the same time they buy or sell securities for Clients. In order to mitigate conflicts of interest such as front running, affiliated persons are required to disclose all reportable securities transactions as well as provide TFG with copies of their brokerage statements.

The Chief Compliance Officer of TFG is Leonard P Cole. He reviews all trades of the affiliated persons each quarter. The personal trading reviews ensure that the personal trading of affiliated persons does not affect the markets and that Clients of the firm receive preferential treatment over associated persons' transactions.

Item 12: Brokerage Practices

Factors Used to Select Broker-Dealers for Client Transactions

TFG will recommend the use of a particular broker-dealer based on their duty to seek best execution for the client, meaning they have an obligation to obtain the most favorable terms for a client under the circumstances. The determination of what may constitute best execution and price in the execution of a securities transaction by a broker involves a number of considerations and is subjective. Factors affecting brokerage selection include the overall direct net economic result to the portfolios, the efficiency with which the transaction is affected, the ability to effect the transaction where a large block is involved, the operational facilities of the broker-dealer, the value of an ongoing relationship with such broker and the financial strength and stability of the broker. TFG will select appropriate brokers based on a number of factors including but not limited to their relatively low transaction fees and reporting ability. TFG relies on its broker to provide its execution services at the best prices available. Lower fees for comparable services may be available from other sources. Clients pay for any and all custodial fees in addition to the advisory fee charged by TFG. TFG does not receive any portion of the trading fees.

TFG will require the use of TD Ameritrade.

- Directed Brokerage
TFG does not allow directed brokerage accounts.
- Brokerage for Client Referrals
TFG does not receive client referrals from any custodian or third party in exchange for using that broker-dealer or third party.
- Research and Other Soft Dollar Benefits
The Securities and Exchange Commission defines soft dollar practices as arrangement under which products or services other than execution services are obtained by TFG from or through a broker-dealer in exchange for directing Client transactions to the broker-dealer. As permitted by Section 28(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, TFG receives economic benefits as a result of commissions generated from securities transactions by the broker-dealer from the accounts of TFG. These benefits include both proprietary research from the broker and other research written by third parties.

A conflict of interest exists when TFG receives soft dollars. This conflict is mitigated by the fact that TFG has a fiduciary responsibility to act in the best interest of its Clients and the services received are beneficial to all Clients.

TFG utilizes the services of custodial broker dealers. Economic benefits are received by TFG which would not be received if TFG did not give investment advice to Clients. These benefits include: A dedicated trading desk, a dedicated service group and an account services manager dedicated to TFG's accounts, ability to conduct "block" Client trades, electronic download of trades, balances and positions, duplicate and batched Client statements, and the ability to have advisory fees directly deducted from Client accounts.

Aggregating Securities Transactions for Client Accounts

TFG manages each account separately, and therefore, does not aggregate purchases and sales and other transactions. If orders are not aggregated, some clients purchasing securities around the same time may receive a less favorable price than other clients which may cost clients more money.

Item 13: Review of Accounts

Schedule for Periodic Review of Client Accounts or Financial Plans and Advisory Persons Involved

Account reviews are performed quarterly by the Chief Compliance Officer of TFG, Leonard P Cole. Account reviews are performed more frequently when market conditions dictate. Reviews of Client accounts include, but are not limited to, a review of Client documented risk tolerance, adherence to account objectives, investment time horizon, and suitability criteria, reviewing target bans of each asset class to identify if there is an opportunity for rebalancing, and reviewing accounts for tax loss harvesting opportunities.

Financial plans generated are updated as requested by the Client and pursuant to a new or amended agreement, TFG suggests updating at least annually.

Review of Client Accounts on Non-Periodic Basis

Other conditions that may trigger a review of Clients' accounts or financial plans are changes in the tax laws, new investment information, and changes in a Client's own situation.

Content of Client Provided Reports and Frequency

Clients receive written account statements no less than quarterly for managed accounts. Account statements are issued by TFG's custodian. Client receives confirmations of each transaction in account from Custodian and an additional statement during any month in which a transaction occurs.

Item 14: Client Referrals and Other Compensation

Economic Benefits Provided to the Advisory Firm from External Sources and Conflicts of Interest

As disclosed under Item 12 above, TFG participates in TD Ameritrade's institutional customer program and TFG may recommend TD Ameritrade to Clients for custody and brokerage services. There is no direct link between TFG's participation in the program and the investment advice it gives to its Clients, although TFG receives economic benefits through its participation in the program that are typically not available to TD Ameritrade retail investors. These benefits include the following products and services (provided without cost or at a discount): receipt of duplicate Client statements and confirmations; research related products and tools; consulting services; access to a trading desk serving TFG participants; access to block trading (which provides the ability to aggregate securities transactions for execution and then allocate the appropriate shares to Client accounts); the ability to have advisory fees deducted directly from Client accounts; access to an electronic communications network for Client order entry and account information; access to mutual funds with no transaction fees and to certain institutional money managers; and discounts on compliance, marketing, research, technology, and practice management products or services provided to TFG by third party vendors.

TD Ameritrade may also have paid for business consulting and professional services received by TFG's related persons. Some of the products and services made available by TD Ameritrade through the program may benefit TFG but may not benefit its Client accounts. These products or services may assist TFG in managing and administering Client accounts, including accounts not maintained at TD Ameritrade. Other services made available by TD Ameritrade are intended to help TFG manage and further develop its business enterprise. The benefits received by TFG or its personnel through participation in the program do not depend on the amount of brokerage transactions directed to TD Ameritrade. As part of its fiduciary duties to Clients, TFG endeavors at all times to put the interests of its Clients first. Clients should be aware, however, that the receipt of economic benefits by TFG or its related persons in and of itself creates a conflict of interest and may indirectly influence the TFG's choice of TD Ameritrade for custody and brokerage services.

Advisory Firm Payments for Client Referrals

TFG does not compensate for Client referrals.

Item 15: Custody

Account Statements

All assets are held at qualified custodians, which means the custodians provide account statements directly to Clients at their address of record at least quarterly. Clients are urged to compare the account statements received directly from their custodians to any documentation or reports prepared by TFG.

TFG is deemed to have limited custody solely because advisory fees are directly deducted from Client's accounts by the custodian on behalf of TFG. Pursuant to CCR Section 260.237(b)(3)

- A. The investment adviser has custody of the funds and securities solely as a consequence of its authority to make withdrawals from client accounts to pay its advisory fee.
- B. The investment adviser has written authorization from the client to deduct advisory fees from the account held with the qualified custodian.
- C. Each time a fee is directly deducted from a Client account, the investment adviser concurrently:
 - i. Sends the qualified custodian an invoice or statement of the amount of the fee to be deducted from the client's account; and
 - ii. Sends the client an invoice or statement itemizing the fee. Itemization includes the formula used to calculate the fee, the value of the assets under management on which the fee is based, and the time period covered by the fee.
- D. The investment adviser notifies the Commissioner in writing that the investment adviser intends to use the safeguards provided above. Such notification is required to be given on Form ADV.

Item 16: Investment Discretion

Discretionary Authority for Trading

TFG requires discretionary authority to manage securities accounts on behalf of Clients. TFG has the authority to determine, without obtaining specific Client consent, the securities to be bought or sold, and the amount of the securities to be bought or sold. The client will authorize TFG discretionary authority to execute selected investment program transactions as stated within the Investment Advisory Agreement.

TFG allows Client's to place certain restrictions, as outlined in the Client's Investment Policy Statement or similar document. Such restrictions could include only allowing purchases of socially conscious investments. These restrictions must be provided to TFG in writing.

TFG does not receive any portion of the transaction fees or commissions paid by the Client to the custodian.

Item 17: Voting Client Securities

Proxy Votes

TFG does not vote proxies on securities. Clients are expected to vote their own proxies. The Client will receive their proxies directly from the custodian of their account or from a transfer agent.

When assistance on voting proxies is requested, TFG will provide recommendations to the Client. If a conflict of interest exists, it will be disclosed to the Client. For assistance, please contact TFG at 951-308-6444.

Item 18: Financial Information

Balance Sheet

A balance sheet is not required to be provided because TFG does not serve as a custodian for Client funds or securities and TFG does not require prepayment of fees of more than $500 per Client and six months or more in advance.

Financial Conditions Reasonably Likely to Impair Advisory Firm's Ability to Meet Commitments to Clients

TFG has no condition that is reasonably likely to impair our ability to meet contractual commitments to our Clients.

Bankruptcy Petitions during the Past Ten Years

TFG has not had any bankruptcy petitions in the last ten years.

The CFP® certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP® certification. It is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its (1) high standard of professional education; (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and (3) ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with Clients.

To attain the right to use the CFP® marks, an individual must satisfactorily fulfill the following requirements:

- Ethics – Agree to be bound by CFP Board's Standards of Professional Conduct, a set of documents outlining the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals.

Individuals who become certified must complete the following ongoing education and ethics requirements in order to maintain the right to continue to use the CFP® marks:

- Continuing Education – Complete 30 hours of continuing education hours every two years, including two hours on the Code of Ethics and other parts of the Standards of Professional Conduct, to maintain competence and keep up with developments in the financial planning field; and
- Ethics – Renew an agreement to be bound by the Standards of Professional Conduct. The Standards prominently require that CFP® professionals provide financial planning services at a fiduciary standard of care. This means CFP® professionals must provide financial planning services in the best interests of their Clients. CFP® professionals who fail to comply with the above standards and requirements may be subject to CFP Board's enforcement process, which could result in suspension or permanent revocation of their CFP® certification.

Professional Designations:

The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™, CFP® and federally registered CFP (with flame design) marks (collectively, the “CFP® marks”) are professional certification marks granted in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. (“CFP Board”).

The CFP® certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP® certification. It is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its (1) high standard of professional education; (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and (3) ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with Clients.

To attain the right to use the CFP® marks, an individual must satisfactorily fulfill the following requirements:

- Education – Complete an advanced college-level course of study addressing the financial planning subject areas that CFP Board’s studies have determined as necessary for the competent and professional delivery of financial planning services, and attain a Bachelor’s Degree from a regionally accredited United States college or university (or its equivalent from a foreign university). CFP Board’s financial planning subject areas include insurance planning and risk management, employee benefits planning, investment planning, income tax planning, retirement planning, and estate planning;
- Examination – Pass the comprehensive CFP® Certification Examination. The examination includes case studies and Client scenarios designed to test one’s ability to correctly diagnose financial planning issues and apply one’s knowledge of financial planning to real world circumstances;
- Experience – Complete at least three years of full-time financial planning-related experience (or the equivalent, measured as 2,000 hours per year); and
- Ethics – Agree to be bound by CFP Board’s Standards of Professional Conduct, a set of documents outlining the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals.

Individuals who become certified must complete the following ongoing education and ethics requirements in order to maintain the right to continue to use the CFP® marks:

- Continuing Education – Complete 30 hours of continuing education hours every two years, including two hours on the Code of Ethics and other parts of the Standards of Professional Conduct, to maintain competence and keep up with developments in the financial planning field; and
- Ethics – Renew an agreement to be bound by the Standards of Professional Conduct. The Standards prominently require that CFP® professionals provide financial planning services at a fiduciary standard of care. This means CFP® professionals must provide financial planning services in the best interests of their Clients. CFP® professionals who fail to comply with the above standards and requirements may be subject to CFP Board’s enforcement process, which could result in suspension or permanent revocation of their CFP® certification.
